Good Morning,
The team has been building the ice level up overnight, we are nearly there.
The figure skaters will be first to be on the new ice at Avondale!!!
As the ice level is still very low there will be no jumps today and for spins please avoid the hockey and curling markings. Also to clarify you can skate, practice by yourself if you are not in a lesson.
We will need to build up the ice level overnight apologies we won't be able to have Tue morning figure session 19th May instead it will be in the afternoon 3:30-5:30pm.

Regards
Rosie

Hi
We hope you have all been keeping safe & well.
Whoo hoo! we can resume figure sessions from Monday 18th May at Paradise Avondale, at this stage we expect to have figure sessions at Botany starting from Monday 25th May.

With the Alert level 2 regulations we have new health and safety measures and updated the Figure Skating Ice Code for everyone to abide by, all skaters will need to have read and signed before they can attend figure sessions. Please return a scan of your signed documents to ezlyn@paradice.co.nz

Documents are located here <https://www.paradice.co.nz/ice-sports/figure-skating/>
<https://www.paradice.co.nz/wp-content/uploads/2020/05/Figure-Session-COVID-19-Health-and-Safety.pdf>

As much as the skaters will want to give each other hugs they'll have to wait until we are out of the alert level. As there are strict guidelines for social distancing we must ensure skaters do not group together, only Solo Skating, Pairs or Ice Dance is permitted on figure sessions.

The rink schedule has altered to allow for sanitizing between each activity at this stage we are setting the schedule one week at a time.

Please note as per the Health & Safety protocols skaters can arrive only 10 minutes prior to session time and leave within 10 minutes of session end time and will need to sign in and out on the register located at the point of entry/exit. Skaters will also still need to register their attendance on the figure admissions programme either at the office for the afternoon sessions and with Bronwyn or Annie during the morning figure sessions.

Skaters will need to have their own fluoro arm bands for when they are in a lesson on the pink side, and green or yellow when doing their programme. If you aren't able to make your own they will be available to purchase from the rink at a cost of $5 each. Please write your name on arm band. To order armbands email rosie@paradice.co.nz by Saturday 16th May.
